President's Letter

What kind of shoe are you?

Are you the type of member, like a high heel, who “pumps” up others? Do you encourage, build up, and help?

Are you “flat” or unmotivated to do anything, or worse, happy to criticize but not work?

Are you a “boot” who boots out the negatives, and tries to solve the problems?

Are you “running” to the aid of the members or do you run away?

In the end, you will receive from the guild what you give. Help with the fundraiser and we’ll get the best programs we can afford. Take a turn at being an officer, committee worker, or demonstrate a skill at Skills Night.

With your membership comes responsibilities. Take your turn at doing things. It can be fun and it is definitely rewarding. If you don’t share the responsibilities, in the end there may be nothing good to share.

Everyone is busy; no one believes they are the best one for the job. Have a little courage! No matter the task, you don’t work alone. You don’t have to be perfect. Just don’t be negative, always saying “no.”

So, are you a high heel or a flat?

Linda Franklin

October Program

Community Service and Garage Sale

There will be demo areas; machine quilting and Accuquilt (die cutter). This will begin at 2:30 pm prior to the Guild meeting. Members are asked to bring rotary cutters, rulers, mats and necessary sewing tools to assist in CS projects. If you wish to donate sewing and quilting items to the garage sale, please price them and contact Sherry Worley for any further information. The proceeds from the sales will be used for shelving and totes for CS fabric storage.

Meeting Minutes

September 26, 2013 CPQG

Pres. Linda Franklin called the meeting to order. Franklin thanked the food committee for the wonderful meal and announced Oct. Capt. is Maejean Nixson, however, she will not be present and Wanda Roy volunteered to serve as captain of the food committee. Several other members on the committee will not be present. Franklin reminded members that they are responsible to find someone to substitute for them or contribute monetarily to the meal.
