PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Dear quilters,

I will see you at our new venue on June 28!

Christ Community Church at 5500 Sayle Street, drive around to back on Shelby Ave to park at rear.

McKinney Guild will bring their raffle quilt to sell tickets.

Our Annual Community Service Fund Raiser will make for an exciting evening. Bring your donated items a little early to set out for us to shop! The donated funds go straight to CS for materials!

Bring a box or bags to carry your goodies home!

Commerce Food Pantry will gladly take your grocery bags to use within their organization.

All of you door prize donors have done a wonderful job! Thank you for your willingness to share!

Lone Star Heritage Quilt Guild (Sulphur Springs) wanted me to remind you that their entry deadline for the September 14-15 Show is July 20th.

May Minutes

The meeting was called to order by President Debra Hager.

Kathie Gilbert and her food committee were praised for the finger foods. Next month's Food Chair is Chris Morris. The number of people to bring food each month was reduced to 8.

Helen Varner moved to approve April's Minutes; Katharine McCaw seconded the motion. Motion was passed with guild vote. 46 members were in attendance with three visitors.

Kelly Greiner accepted the box tops. The purging of Facebook non-guild members was announced.

Editor Ruth Harmon announced June 18 as next deadline. She also informed progress for the design of the 2019 Raffle Quilt.

New business: Due to issues with the Armory's unavailability for certain meetings and events, an emergency call was made to find a new venue. Thus, Kelly Greiner contacted Christ Community Church at 5500 Sayle Street in Greenville, Texas. Their board approved us to continue our current rate of $50 per meeting. We need only to place and replace our chairs during meeting. If we want to use the kitchen, an extra fee will be paid. All dates and times will remain the same.

Trish Stuart moved for the guild to meet at CCC as our new venue. Ruth Butcher followed with a second to the motion. The guild voted and approved.

The guild will still contribute 15 items for Armory Christmas Party, as well as, give quilt workshop to family members of troops from Armory. October is the tentative time frame.

Pamela Hansen is the head of Committee. Debra Hager, Mary Lou Strohm, Jane Asberry and Anita Gaudreau will assist with workshop.

Vonnie Valdez informed guild of TAQG news and activities. Jane Martyn and Debra Hager donated mini quilts for their auction.

Chris Morris and Cathy Weatheread are scheduling dates for our raffle quilt with other guilds and special events. Please contact them to volunteer to take quilt. Treasurer Cathy Weatheread announced the total raffle ticket sales for The Hunt County Fair were $513.

Community Service Chair Jo Dieterich announced material donations from Virginia Johnson and Lou Devenport. She reminded members of June's Meeting being the Annual Garage Sale. She directed us to gather donated items "for sale" and bring shopping bags to carry "purchased" items home. Donations will be accepted for this very important fund raiser for our amazing Community Service Team.

Members were reminded that there is an open invitation to attend The Cotton Strippers Circle. They meet the second Thursday at 6:00 PM (eat at 6:30) at Kavanaugh Methodist Church on Park Street in Greenville.

Vice President Mandy Weaver informed guild of the August workshop with Becky Goldsmith. Contact her, soon, to reserve your place. She introduced our speaker, Mendie Cannon, who presented a program on Brazilian Embroidery. Her website is www.bestitched.biz.

Door prizes and "Show and Tell" followed. The meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully Submitted by Debra Hager in the absence of Sherry

Door Prize Donors

We are fortunate to have generous friends supplying our door prizes. Be sure to send thank you notes to them for adding to the fun of our meetings.

granddaughter), Elena (Sara's granddaughter), and Christie Weathered. The food committee serviced a great salad dinner with lots of desserts, it was delightful. Next month's food committee is: Ruth Harmon, Sara Bobbitt, Kathie Gilbert, Vonnie Valdez and Lucretia Wheat. When discussed out Sunshine and Shadows. Donna Moon was back with us, a sunshine. We heard a report about Maxine Leverett. We show our block exchange blocks, they are getting prettier each time. I know I'm getting excited to see all mine put together. We had regular show and tell, Ruth Harmon showed her award winning donation quilts and Kathy Vestal showed two her quilts that she had completed.

Maxine Leverett's Address is:

Workshop: Improvisational Piecing

Teacher: Becky Goldsmith

Date: Thursday August 23, 2018

Time: 9:00 am – 4:00 pm w/ 1 hour lunch break

Where: Christ Community Church, 5500 Sayle St., Greenville, Tx.

Cost: $45.00

Learn how to make decisions and embrace the unexpected as you work on your very own quilt that will be like no one else's. This class focuses on color and design. You can cut with or without a ruler. All sewing is done on the machine. You can use my quilt as inspiration or come with an idea of your own. In either case, you will find that your quilt will take shape as you cut and sew.

All skill levels welcome.
