PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Dear Friends,
I hope you are having a great fall! I think by the time you receive this winter will be here in full force. Since coming back from International Quilt Show in Houston I have actually been spending more time in the studio. Christmas is coming and I need to get presents started and finished. We had a fabulous time at the show. It had been 5 years since I attended and so many things had changed. Lots more room. The isles were still very crowded especially around the more popular booths. If you ever get a chance to attend a large show, you will be amazed at the quilts! I had two great long arm classes with Jamie Wallen. I learned a lot and realized how much more I needed to learn and practice! I'm off to the Paris Quilt Retreat on Wednesday! Yea! Hope you have a great November! Keep on quilting on!
Jane Martyn

2019 Guild Programs

December 19 Christmas Party - we will have our usual amazing pot luck supper and gift exchange. This year the gift exchange is a napkin exchange. A cloth napkin is generally about 18 to 20 inches square so a fat quarter would just be perfect. No rules here, make it seasonal, geometric, novelty....use your imagination!

November Program

This month we're welcoming Jacqueline Watt from Watt A Find, Unique Gifts and Furnishings in Mesquite. She and her associate will be doing a post quilt market review for us and introduce us to her interesting shop. And of course she will have a shopping opportunity. Jacqueline has a very nice selection of fabrics and quilting supplies in her lovely store.

Coming up in December.....we are the program! It's time to unveil your Presidents Challenge, your oldest UFO. You still have time if you haven't quite finished it yet so let's wow Jane with all of our "finishes".

2020 Guild Programs

We start the year with a special program and workshop in January. Nova Montgomery, nationally known for her maintenance workshop for Singer Featherweight machines is going to be in Greenville on January 23, 2020. Nova will present her program, "A Century of Progress" Journey to the 1933 World's Fair and the Sears National Quilt Contest. On January 25, 2020 Nova will present her nationally acclaimed Featherweight Maintenance Workshop. It is Spa Day for your Singer Featherweight 221. Nova will supply all of the cleaning materials for use during the workshop and a Featherweight Maintenance Card. Special Price for CPQG members will be $115.00. To sign up, call, text or email me. Workshop Supply List will be available at the guild meeting. Submitted by Christine Morris

Door Prize Donors

We are fortunate to have generous friends supplying our door prizes. Be sure to send thank you notes to them for adding to the fun of our meetings.

Nov. door prizes – Ruth Harmon, LaNell Bundick

Raffle Quilt Ticket Sales

There are only two more guild meetings to get your money and ticket stubs turned in.

Please bring them to me at the meetings.

Thank you, Pam Hodapp

COTTON BLOSSOMS, Commerce, TX

The Blossoms meet the second Monday of each month at 2 p.m. at Mugs Coffee Shop.

COTTON STRIPPERS

The Cotton Strippers Circle will meet on Thursday, Nov. 14th. and will be led by Kay Colcleasure, at Kavanaugh UMC in Greenville. Guests are welcome.

OCTOBER MINUTES

Jane Martyn called the meeting to order. Refreshment Committee was thanked. Next month's chairperson is Lucretia Wheat. Frisco Quilt Guild had their raffle quilt on display and were selling tickets. As always, we had a wonderful show and tell. Kathy Vestal made a motion to accept minutes as printed in newsletter, Mary Lynn Collins seconded the motion.

The nominating committee announced their slate of candidates for 2020.

Community service made $285 on their garage sale. The library disbursement sale brought in $456. We were reminded about the Nova Montgomery workshop on January 25. Our November program will be Jacqueline Watt from Watt A Find quilt shop in Mesquite. She will be doing a market review. We were reminded to bring a decorated napkin to exchange for the Christmas program. Connie Cawthon showed our finished top for our donation quilt for 2020! It received lots of ohs and ahhs. Door prizes were provided by Doris Lemon and Mandy Weaver. Birthday gift was provided by Hoop Wranglers. Ruth Harmon and Lynelle Bundick will provide door prizes for November. Our program was to help Community Service with donation quilts. We spent the afternoon and evening working on those. Submitted by Jane Asberry, Secretary

Community Service

Everyone that worked on the October guild sewing session deserves a round of applause. 17 quilted tops that were brought to guild were started and 13 were completed the night of guild. Betty Day, Connie Cawthon and Jane Martyn demonstrated a variety of binding methods. Thank you for your time and wisdom. Great Job everyone. New and different ideas and techniques were taught and tried. Pat yourselves on the back. Cathy W. is taking a well deserve break from CS quilting to work on her own projects. Therefore, we will have tops, batting and backing kits available at the November guild meeting. We are putting out a request to our Longarmers that would like to practice on CS projects. We are still in possession of kits from the Jelly Roll race that need to be quilted. If you could find time to quilt one kit, we would be grateful. We could not donate these quilts to our charities without our Longarmers support. Everyone plays a vital role. Don't forget when completing your project, to give it a once over the front and back. Sometimes, our machines do not always behave the way they should when away from home. All of our donated quilts are treated as though we are giving them to a family member. We take pride in what goes out with the Cotton Patch Quilt Guild label sewn on it. When we donate items in our community, we are putting our best forward. We will meet in December on the 1st and 3rd Mondays. December 2nd and 16th, 2019. We meet at Kavanaugh United Methodist Church 2516 Park St, Greenville, TX 75401. We start around 10 am and stop around 2 pm. If you spend only 2 hours with us, that would be very helpful. Bring in lunch or go out, whatever you wish. Enter from the parking lot Side door. One door has a daycare attached and the Church Secretary will direct you. The other door farther south, has stairs leading up and down. Take the ones to the basement. Go through the dining room to the far side and enter the door labeled "Fire Controls". We welcome all spare toiletries that you accumulate while traveling. We pass on these treasures to those people that are less fortunate.
