PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Dear Friends,
I think Fall has finally arrived with this delightful cooler weather. Hubby and I had a great camping trip to Branson. I was able to go to 3 quilt stores, 2 in Branson and 1 in Little Rock. Quilts & Quilts in Branson was awesome. If you are looking for any kind of panel, they might have it. It was a HUGE store with samples everywhere, a wool section, a pre-cut section and all kinds of nooks and crannies to see filled with fabric and stuff. My sister-in-law and I even went back again! Also, I can't believe it but I ran into a former guild member Linda Russell. She was very active in Cranky Treadlers. She and her husband now live in Arizona. They were coming out of the swimming pool as we were going in. What a shock. It really is a small world. If you didn't get to Mandy and Wanda's Open House you missed a great time. Wanda gets the downstairs and Mandy's upstairs bedroom and quilt rooms were awesome! Someday I'd like us to do a sewing room tour. It's always fun to see how others organize and create even in a small space! Happy Halloween!!

Keep on quilting on!

Jane Martyn

October 24 Community Service Work Night

November 21 Jacqueline Watt – Watt A Find Quilt Shop Lecture – “Market Review & Sale”

December 19 Christmas Party

October Program: This month was scheduled as our Skills Night, but this month we are answering a call for help from our Community Service team. They have a number of quilts that need bindings so we are all pitching in to help. Don't know how to do a binding by machine? NO PROBLEM! Lessons will be provided. Bring your sewing machine and bobbins, scissors and other incidentals and extension cords. Tops, binding and spare spools of thread will be provided. Thanks everyone for helping.

Looking to the end of the year, we will have our President's Challenge which is to finish your oldest UFO. How are you doing? You have about 2 more months to finish. I know some of you have been on top of this challenge and are ready for Show and Share.

The December meeting, we will have our usual amazing pot luck supper and gift exchange. This year the gift exchange will tie in with our meal since it will be a NAPKIN EXCHANGE. A cloth napkin is generally about 18 to 20 inches square so a fat quarter would just be perfect. No rules here, make it seasonal, geometric, novelty....use your imagination!

2020 Guild Programs

We start the year with a special program and workshop in January. Nova Montgomery, nationally known for her maintenance workshop for Singer Featherweight machines is going to be in Greenville on January 23, 2020. Nova will present her program, "A Century of Progress" Journey to the 1933 World's Fair and the Sears National Quilt Contest. On January 25, 2020 Nova will present her nationally acclaimed Featherweight Maintenance Workshop. It is Spa Day for your Singer Featherweight 221. Nova will supply all of the cleaning materials for use during the workshop and a Featherweight Maintenance Card. Special Price for CPQG members will be $115.00. To sign up, call, text or email me. Workshop Supply List will be available at the guild meeting. Submitted by Christine Morris

SEPTEMBER MINUTES

Jane Martyn called the meeting to order. The Refreshment committee was thanked. Next month's refreshment chairperson is Vonnie Valdez. Visitors were introduced & welcomed. As always, we had wonderful show & tell! LaVonne McCaw made a motion to accept minutes as printed in the newsletter & Helen Varner seconded the motion. Box tops went to Sara Bobbitt for Lone Oak ISD. Several Guild members were recognized as winners at the Sulphur Springs Quilt Show. They were Carol Adams, Helen Varner, Cathy Weathered & Joan Biggs (Long Arm Quilting). The Bylaws Committee met before Guild. If you have any suggestions for changes please let LaVonne MaCaw or Jane Martyn know. It is time again to elect officers for 2020. A Nomination Committee was selected. Only two positions were needed, Membership and Newsletter Editor. The Nominating Committee consists of LaVonne McCaw, Marcie Reese, & Connie Cawthon as the alternate. Doris Lemon volunteered to for Membership. A sign-up sheet for people to work at Bois d' Arc Bash selling raffle tickets was passed around. After it was returned to Jane, it was noted that we did not have enough workers for the Bash. Therefore, we cancelled it. It was suggested we also sell chances at the Princeton Fall Festival but if no one can work the Bash, then we would not have enough volunteers for Princeton. Programs: The October Program will be hosted by Community Service. Everyone is encouraged to attend and help machine bind the quilts that are ready. Connie Cawthon will be teaching this & members are encouraged to bring their machines & learn the easy technique for binding. Chris announced that Nova Montgomery Featherweight workshop is scheduled for January she has the sign up sheet ready. TAQG speaker for 2020 will be Marti Michel. No admission fee this year & no pre-rally day door prize tickets will be sold. Sunshine and Shadows Jane's daughter-in-law had her surgery, the doctor feels they were able to remove all the cancer. Cathy Weatherhead's brother is ill and needs our prayers. The 2019 Raffle Quilt has raised $1,752. $287 from events, $709 from the Hunt County Fair and $756 from the membership. 42 members have not turned in their tickets. The 2020 Raffle Quilt will be shown at the October meeting. Connie Cawthon reported that it was almost complete. Door Prizes were provided by Helen Varner and Kathie Gilbert. Birthday gift was provided Hoop Wranglers.

Community Service

Community Service has been busy these past few weeks. Thank you for all the volunteers that have come to Community Service Mondays. We are preparing for the October Guild Meeting. We will have several quilted tops ready for binding. This would not be possible if not for our Long Arm quilters generous donation of time and supplies for our community efforts. "Thank you" for all that you continue to do for the guild. We hope to bind many quilts this Thursday evening. A couple of our members will be demonstrating new and /or different methods for binds quilts and turning corners. We will also have rag quilts available for pick to complete at home, as well as string blocks kits. An example of a Fidget lap quilt with attached "activities" will hopefully be available for everyone to view. We will also have an updated method for piecing blocks. Thank you to all the creative guild members we have that have shared their talents with others. Meeting dates for next month are Monday, November 4th and 18th, 2019 We meet in the basement off of the main diningroom. Hours are 10 am-2 pm. Entrance to the basement can be made using either door located off of the small parking lots. We have been reminded by the staff of Kavanaugh UMC, that small donations of nonperishable items to the food pantry would be welcome anytime. The pantry is located next to the church's outdoor storage building, driveway side. Thank you for everyone's generosity.
