President's Letter

Dear Friends,

It's been a busy few weeks with hubby's heart issue but soon things will be back on track. I have been working on cleaning up the studio as I've lost my retreat folder and I'm desperate to find it. I have found stuff I didn't remember having but can't find the notebook. It's driving me nuts. Stress does some crazy things sometimes! As I'm looking for it, I'm going to pull fabric for the Cotton Stripper's Mystery we are starting. It will be my 2nd one to do and hopefully I will have the time to get the steps done each time. I did one year ago but picked the wrong colors (lights vs darks do matter) but if I do this one scrappy I can't screw it up (hopefully). I do love scrap quilts!

Hopefully your summer plans are underway whether quilt related or travel related! See you at Guild, I hope! It should be a great program.

Keep on quilting on!

Jane Martyn

Our program for June: Geri Campbell, owner of Quilt Republic in Pottsville will be coming to Greenville this month. Her program will be "Aged to Perfection." Geri has managed a quilt shop in Montana and ran the Montana Shop Hop from inception for nine years until her move to Texas. She and her husband live at Camp All Saints where Dave is the executive director. Summer camp is now in full swing and during this time, Geri gets lots of time to quilt, sew and create new ideas for her shop.

Geri has been sewing since she was 10 and quilting for 29 years. Yes! She's 39!

When fabric and tactile appreciation of texture, color and design come together, you get quilts that are Aged to Perfection. Come to the guild meeting and meet Geri and hear her story. You may even be entertained.

May 2019 Minutes

Jane Martyn called the meeting to order. Guests were welcomed. The food chair for June is Robby Rather. We had 4 guests. Our program was by Elizabeth Arellano from Savvy Quilters.

She showed wonderful wool quilts and mini quilts. There were lots of items for sale including wool bundles, kits and notions.

Show and Tell was wonderful as usual.

Carol Adams made a motion to accept the April minutes as posted in the newsletter and LaVonne McCaw seconded the motion. Box tops this month went to Mandy Weaver for the Princeton schools. Cathy Weatherhead reported that we have raised $1,299 from raffle ticket sales. $711 was made at the Hunt County Fair and $588 was turned in from Paris Retreat, the Sulphur Springs Guild, Rowlett Guild and our members.

Our program for June will be presented by Gerri Campbell and she will be giving a Market Review. Sunshine & Shadow: Connie Cawthon is feeling better and was at Guild.

Helen Varner is selling Castle Varner and moving to Sun City (near Georgetown). (I personally hope it doesn't sell real fast). The birthday door prize was won by Ruth Leonhardt. Door prizes were donated by Doris Lemon and Ruth Harmon.

Respectfully submitted by Jane Martyn in Jane Asberry's absence.

Community Service

Stop by the Community Service table during refreshment period for the BOM info. Don't miss the info about partial seams.

August 22 Community Service Garage Sale is quickly coming upon us. Please look for those treasures you want to part with and set them aside until our August Guild meeting. Please remember not to bring them in early, as we cannot store them at our meeting place. Bring those items in on Thursday, August 22, guild meeting day, to Christ Community Church. We will announce closer to the August date, times for drop off.

As donations arrive, we continue to work on our quilts for our community recipients. While traveling, don't forget to stock up on the giveaway toiletries. We appreciate all that are donated to us, as we in turn pass them onto the needy organizations we assist with.

The July dates for CS workdays are 7/01 and 7/15 at Kavanaugh. We welcome a couple of ladies that have joined us the last couple meetings and hope others will join us. Bring your machine or use one in the CS room. We always have partial projects requiring attention so come to see what needs completing or sew some strip blocks. Our times are 10A to about 2P and we break for lunch. Come join us!! Our new meeting space is in the room next to the Fellowship Hall we used to meet in at Kavanaugh.

The design committee would like for our guild members to donate several different 6 1/2 inch squares of newer fabric for the 2020 raffle quilt. We prefer bright or medium to dark colors. Please bring them to the Guild meeting this month. Can't wait to see what you bring! Thank you very much!

FRIENDSHIP GROUP UPDATES Cotton Strippers Meeting

The Cotton Strippers circle met June 13th with 30 members and 3 guests present. We welcomed Carol Adams and Paula Etschman as members. The food committee led by Jeanie Herring served a great meal. Food committee for July is Ruth Leonhardt (Capt.), Sara Bobbitt, Janice Evans, Maejean Nixon, Vonnie Valdez, Connie Cawthon and Lucretia Wheat. With sadness we shared the news of the passing of 2 of our quilters: Becky Medlock - CPQG/Cotton Strippers and Melba Diamond – Lone Star Heritage Quilt Guild (Sulphur Springs.) Jane Martyn gave an update on July Matthews retreat. Kathy Vestal led a discussion of washing/not washing fabrics for quilting. Betty Day will give a talk on value and contrast in fabrics at the July meeting. Show-n-tell were presented with lots of examples of mystery quilts. Kay Colcleasure gave the highly anticipated fabric requirements for the mystery quilt with the 1st clue to be given at the July mtg. The next meeting is July 11th at Kavanaugh UMC. Guests are welcome.
